

- The two birds names are Bella and Bertie, one looks over the city to protect the people and the other looks out to sea at new sailors coming into port. people say that if one gets away Liverpool will be demolished!
- The building has two clock towers, as a ship passed the ship captains could tell the time.
- The clocks were originally called the George clocks as they were turned on at the same time King George V was crowned on 22nd June 1911
